ASK FATHER SHAWN

Q: Whose relic is by the ambo at St. Mary of the Woods? Can the ID be larger to read?

A: The reliquary at St. Mary of the Woods contains three relics from Fatima, Portugal. There is a piece of the coffin of Saint Jacinta at the top and a piece of the coffin of Saint Francisco at the bottom. In the middle, there is a piece from the tree that Mary appeared over during the apparitions in 1917. The relics of Saints Francisco and Jacinta (two of the Fatima children) are 2nd class relics. 1st class relics come from the body of the saint. 2nd class relics are something that touched the person or belonged to them during their life (like a piece of clothing). 3rd class relics are items that have been touched to a 1st class relic.

While some people question the use of relics, their use is supported in the Bible. For example, in Acts of the Apostles 19:12, handkerchiefs and aprons from St. Paul were touched to sick people, and the sick people were healed. These handkerchiefs and aprons demonstrate the power of relics (2nd class relics in this case).

Relics are enclosed in a theca, which is a small container that is closed with a wax seal on the back. The wax seal must be unbroken and should match the seal that is on the certificate that guarantees the authenticity of the relic. The theca cannot be opened without breaking the seal, so we are not able to modify the labels to make them easier to read. Relics must have the seal intact to be used for public veneration.

If you have a question you would like to ask Father Shawn, please put it in the offertory basket or drop it off at the Parish office. Father Shawn will review it, form his answer, and then we will post the answer in the bulletin to educate you and others.

God, I'm sorry...

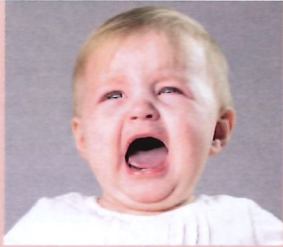

Monday, October 28th

I'm sorry for asking for forgiveness so many times, only to return to sin. Sometimes I judge others. Sometimes I get angry with them. Sometimes I worry about what the future holds... God, I'm sorry for letting You down more times than I can count, but I'm grateful that You still choose me. Please give me the faith and strength to live according to Your will. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Mary, Queen of Angels Sack Lunch Ministry for Women

All women are invited to attend the NE 1 Women's Sack Lunch Ministry at St. Patrick Church, in Makley Hall on Saturday, November 16th from 11:00 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

CRY ROOM AT ST. PATRICK

In the recent parish surveys, we received feedback that parents aren't able to use the cry room at St. Patrick because the doors to the church are kept open and the seats are often occupied.

Beginning the weekend of November 9/10, we will have new signs displayed on the west side of the cry room (in front of the Divine Mercy image) to reserve that area for parents with small children. Ushers are instructed to close the doors between the cry room and the church at the beginning of Mass and to open them again during communion.

I thank our parishioners in advance for being respectful in reserving seats in the west side of the cry room for parents who need them. We are blessed to have a lot of young children in the parish, and we want our parents to have a place they can go in the church if their child is having a rough day!

Fr. Shawn Landenwisch
